

Amundi London Branch, Amundi (UK) Ltd and Amundi Alternative Investments London Branch.

Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy Statement.

Amundi London Branch, Amundi (UK) Ltd and Amundi Alternative Investments London Branch (together "Amundi") is committed to applying the highest standards of ethical conduct and integrity in its business activities. Every employee and individual acting on Amundi's behalf is responsible for conducting company business honestly and professionally.

Amundi considers that bribery and corruption has a detrimental impact on business by undermining good governance and distorting free markets.

Amundi does not tolerate any form of bribery by, or of, its employees or any persons or companies acting for it or on its behalf. Senior Management are committed to implementing and enforcing effective systems to prevent bribery and corruption taking place, in accordance with the Bribery Act 2010.

Amundi has issued an Anti-Bribery Policy which applies to all employees and they are required to familiarize themselves and comply with the policy.

A bribe is a financial advantage or other reward that is offered to, given to, or received by an individual or company (whether directly or indirectly) to induce or influence that individual or company to perform public or corporate functions or duties improperly.

Employees and others acting on behalf of Amundi are strictly prohibited from making, soliciting, or receiving any bribes or unauthorized payments. As part of its anti-bribery measures, Amundi is committed to engage only in transparent, proportionate, reasonable and bona fide promotional expenditure.

A breach of Amundi's anti-bribery policy by an employee will be treated as grounds for disciplinary action,. Employees and other individuals acting for Amundi should note that bribery is a criminal offence that may result in up to 10 years imprisonment and/or an unlimited fine for the individual and an unlimited fine for Amundi.

Amundi will not conduct business with associated persons or business associates that do not support Amundi's anti-bribery objectives.

The success of Amundi's anti-bribery measures depends on everyone playing their part in helping to detect and eradicate bribery. Therefore, all employees and others acting for, or on behalf of, Amundi are encouraged to report any suspicious activity to the Financial Security Representative.
